

1. London Institute of Banking & Finance (LIBF)

The London Institute of Banking & Finance (LIBF) is a not-for-profit charity which exists for a very simple reason – to advance banking and finance by providing outstanding education and thinking, tailored to the needs of business, individuals and society. Founded in 1879 as the Institute of Bankers, LIBF has a rich heritage of providing financial education over 140 years and we have constantly evolved in line with financial services and banking industries. LIBF offers practitioner led global qualifications and training to over 2,000 banks around the world and can count the likes of HSBC, Barclays and Lloyds as key clients. The partnership between the two institute enables collaboration in terms of certified training programs, workshops, conferences, seminars and faculty exchange programs.

https://www.libf.ac.uk/?utm_source=google&utm_medium=Google%20my%20business&utm_campaign=Lovat%20Lane

2. Insurance Institute of India (III), Mumbai, India

Insurance Institute of India formerly known as Federation of Insurance Institute was established in the year 1995, for the purpose of promoting Insurance Education & Training in the country. In its role as a leading education and training provider, III is closely associated with all the segments of the insurance industry which includes Insurance regulatory authority of India, public and private sector insurance companies. FITI has partnered with III for promoting academic cooperation in the area of insurance learning and training. FITI also serves as an On-line Exam Center of III in Bhutan.

<https://www.insuranceinstituteofindia.com/web/guest>

3. Ripples Learning Services, Bangalore, India

The Ripples Learning Services (Ripples) is a Training, Consulting & Certification company with focus on human resource consulting, Behavioral & Soft Skill Training, Software Products & short- and long-term certification programs. FITI and Ripples has partnered to support each other in terms of Trainings, Consulting, joint research, workshops, conferences and seminars.

<https://www.rippleslearning.com/>

4. Indian Institute of Banking and Finance (IIBF), Mumbai, India

IIBF is one of the established and reputed banking institute in India promoted and managed by Governing Council members nominated from Reserve Bank of India, Public Sector Banks, Private Banks, Foreign Banks, Co-operative banks and Academicians. IIBF has more than eight decades of expertise in offering professional examination/qualifications, training and development curriculum for banks and financial institutions in national and international level. The collaboration between the two institute is mainly in terms of trainings and joint curriculum development.

<http://www.iibf.org.in/>

5. Institute of Finance, Banking & Insurance Training Ltd., (IFBI) New Delhi, India.

IFBI is a talent development company and is inter alia engaged in imparting wide range of banking training programs. FITI has partnered with IFBI to jointly develop various certification programs and Post graduate diploma programs pertinent to the Bhutanese industry.

<https://www.niit.com/india/>

6. MVL Consulting Private Limited, Pune, India

MVLCO is a Training, Consulting & Advisory Services Company with focus on financial institutions, multinational banks, banking regulators, information technology companies and companies in diverse area of operations. The purpose of collaboration is to enable cooperation in providing and development of professionally qualified and competent financial service personnel via certified trainings, workshops and seminars.

<https://www.mvlco.com/>

7. National Banking Training institute (NBTI), Kathmandu, Nepal

NBIT is a national level apex banking academy established under the aegis of Nepal Bankers Association with support from Asian Development Bank. The partnership between FITI and NBTI is to enable cooperation to provide capacity building programs for human resource development in the area of banking.

<http://nbi.com.np/>

8. Asian Banking School (ABS), Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The principal activity of ABS is to provide banking and financial services education and learning programs through delivery of high-quality content and curriculum that are aligned with professional and accreditation standards to support the industry's talent development activities. The partnership with the institute is to enable corporations in various areas such as AML/CFT, Compliance and Digital banking certifications programs, workshops, seminars and faculty exchange.

<https://www.asianbankingschool.com/>