The Department of Revenue & Customs (DRC) is pleased to announce the successful completion of the training of 90 private Tax Intermediaries (TI). This initiative is a crucial part of our ongoing efforts to provide expedited, reliable, and proficient assistance across various aspects of taxation. We firmly believe that this deployment will significantly elevate our capacity to provide high-quality taxpayer services, not only during the demanding tax season but also throughout the taxation process. Your satisfaction and ease of engagement remain our utmost priority.

We encourage all taxpayers and the general public to take advantage of the expertise and services provided by these trained professionals. Availing the services of Tax Intermediaries will not only ensure smoother transactions but also contribute to a more effective and streamlined tax compliance process.
